BARRAGE OPENS OVER WHANGPOO WITH BIG HOWITZERS IN ACTION

Chinese Snipers Start Guerilla Campaign Along Pootung Shore—Reports of Bombing Japanese Point by Chinese Planes Officially Denied—Shanghai Battle Continues Indecisively

SHANGHAI, Sept. 3 (AP).—Chinese shells fell dangerously near the cruiser Augusta, flagship of the United States Asiatic fleet, today in a heavy bombardment directed at the Japanese cruiser Idzumo.

Giant howitzers in Pootung, industrial section across the Whangpoo River from the International Settlement, burst into action this morning against the battle-scarred Idzumo.

Many of the shells fell in the Whangpoo, between the American and Japanese flagships.

Widespread fires blazed on land points struck by the bursting missiles.

GUERRILLA ACTION
The barrage followed the opening of a guerilla campaign by Chinese snipers concealed along the Pootung shore, opposite the Augusta, against Japanese warships and warplanes which have been harrying the area.

Other sharpshooters peppered down the Whangpoo, off the Wosung shore, and along the Yangtze River, near Pootung, causing little material damage, but keeping their enemy disoriented and on the alert.

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Sept. 2 (AP).—Resignation of the Social Credit Government of Premier William Aberhart has been called for by the Lethbridge Board of Trade.

The board, which has been taken by such an association, at a general meeting last night a resolution was adopted, reading:

"Resolved, the Lethbridge Board of Trade is of the opinion that the present government of Alberta does not possess the confidence of the people of Alberta, and that they constitute a menace to the people and should forthwith resign their offices."

Copies of the resolution were wired to Lieutenant-Governor Bowen and Premier Aberhart at Edmonton, and a copy will be forwarded to Prime Minister Mackenzie King at Ottawa.

SECRET SIGNALS CREATE MYSTERY

United States Officials Are Puzzled Over Messages Believed From Hidden Wireless Transmitter

SEATTLE, Sept. 2 (AP).—Mysterious radio signals drowning out commercial programmes during the afternoon sent government sleuths on a hunt for a supposedly hidden transmitter today.

Deputy United States Marshal Anthony E. Mandery, who investigated with aid of the coast guard radio station, said only a secret, unlicensed station would have sent such signals, far off the regular wave length channels or private transmitters and powerful enough to carry across the Pacific.

He said the messages were unintelligible and that they stopped before a recording device could be pressed into use.

The Governor-General and Lady Tweedsmuir made no appearance on the platform, but remained on their car.

Saanich Critical of City Communication On Sewer Nuisances

Complaint Regarding Alleged-Outlets Brings Tart Reply From Reeve William Crouch—Conditions Worse in Victoria, He Declares

DEFINITE objection to the tone of a letter received from the City of Victoria regarding sewerage from Saanich allegedly running into the city, was voiced at last evening's meeting of the Saanich council.

The city drew attention to nuisances said to be located at the southeast corner of Shelbourne Street and North Dairy Road, and June 11, and asked for a description of the work to be done and the date of its commencement.

The communication further declared that a special committee had been appointed with full-power to take any steps advisable on behalf of the city.

"I don't like a letter like that from Victoria," commented Reeve William Crouch. "If the city would wipe its own nose before asking us to wipe ours, it would be much better. There are conditions ten times worse existing in certain sections of Victoria than those existing in Saanich."

REEVE OUTSPOKEN

"The city is trying to force us into installing sewerage in Saanich. We shall do so at some time, but not at the behest of Victoria."

Councillor G. A. Austin suggested the letter be received and filed after H. H. Allen, municipal engineer, had explained to the council that the pipe in the location of North Dairy Road was running onto Saanich property, and the pipe on Burnside Road had been plugged.

"Only clear water is seeping through the Burnside Road outlet," commented the reeve.

It was declared that the seepage was so little that it would not entirely wet a man's hand placed flat on the ground.

Councillor A. G. Lambrecht suggested a committee from Saanich meet the committee from the city. After some discussion, it was finally decided to allow Reeve Crouch to draft a reply to the letter since he is familiar with existing conditions.

FIREMEN THANKED

H. Sharp and W. H. Sharp wrote the council offering to set back fence poles on their property from twelve to fifteen feet to allow the widening of Admirals-Road between Inlet Drive and Cowper Street. The

Army Officers Welcomed

Adjutant and Mrs. Charles Watt, new commanding officers of the local Salvation Army Citadel, are shown above as they posed for a recent photo. They arrived in the city yesterday to take over their new posts, and were given a welcome by the Victoria Corps at the Citadel last night. Before coming here, they had been in command for two years at New Westminster. They succeeded Adjutant and Mrs. L. Ede, who have been appointed to the command at Saskatoon.

Adjutant Watt is a native of Northern Scotland. He first became associated with the Salvation Army while on active service with the 4th Gordon Highlanders in France during the Great War. He came to Canada after the Armistice, settling in Brandon in 1923. He was given his officer's commission in 1926, and has commanded eight corps before coming to Victoria.

Mrs. Watt has seen service in Alaska, and had accompanied the Army work in Petersburg and Cordova before her marriage. She has also been an active worker in the W.C.T.U. and similar women's organizations.

GREETING EXTENDED

Both the new commanding officers addressed the well-attended gathering last night. Others who spoke welcoming them were Sergeant-Major Pearce, who introduced them to the corps; Deputy Bandmaster Max Chalk, on behalf of the musical sections; Mrs. J. Hayward, for the young people of the corps; Sergeant J. Turton, for the senior members; and Adjutant H. Martin, on behalf of the officers.

While the meeting was in progress, the Equilateral corps was conducting a similar meeting to welcome its new officers, Captain Fairlie Muttart and Lieutenant Florence Thompson, who arrived here recently from posts with the North Vancouver corps.

First services for all the new officers will be held at the regular hours on Sunday.

USUAL GRANT MADE

A letter from F. E. Winslow drew attention to the fact that Saanich's share in the upkeep of the Central Exchange amounted to $180.73. It was pointed out that after this year the major portion of the cost would be a direct charge on the Greater Victoria Community Chest, and municipalities would pay only on a basis of services given. This year, however, it again is necessary for municipalities to pay on the old basis. The grant will be made as usual.

An expression of thanks from the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce for the co-operation of Saanich in the recent Jubilee parades was ordered received and filed. The parades may become annual events, it was pointed out.

EASTERN UNITS ARE LICENSED

Kiwanis Welfare Group Is Launched by Incorporation Here

Quebec and Ontario firms entered the province for business by taking out extra-provincial licenses this week. One was G. W. Badler Company, Ltd., of Montreal and Vancouver, with share capital of 10,000 shares, and the other Cow & Gate (Canada), Ltd., of Guelph, Ont., and Vancouver, with share capital of $50,000.

Two societies were also added to the Victoria Kiwanis Club Association for Rehabilitation of the Tuberculous, and the North Vancouver Community Centre Society, of Victoria and Vancouver, respectively.

The purpose of the new association, it was explained by Walter M. Walker, president of the Kiwanis Club, is to assist tuberculous sufferers in obtaining grants of supporting themselves during their period of convalescence. A local committee consisting of public-spirited citizens and representatives of the Kiwanis Club will be established to administer a fund collected by the sale of Christmas sales. The new plan replaces the nursing work done previously with these funds, that service now being provided by the Government.

An active list of British Columbia concerns was incorporated, as Rehabilitation of the Tuberculous, Ltd., $200,000, Vancouver; Barkerville Development Company, Ltd., 1,000 shares, maximum sales price at $25 each, Vancouver; Langis Laboratories, Ltd., $10,000, Vancouver; Cove Toeing Company, Ltd., $10,000, Vancouver; Nubook, Ltd., $10,000, Vernon; Spitzer Gold & Silver Mines, Ltd. (N.P.L.), $250,000, public company, Nelson; Montreal Bakery, Ltd., $25,000, Vancouver, and Island Steamship Company, Ltd., $50,000, Vancouver.

Radiologists the world over, including those in charge of the X-ray departments at the two local hospitals, Royal Jubilee and St. Joseph's, are much interested in the forthcoming fifth international Congress of Radiology to be held in Chicago from September 13 to 17, inclusive.

Among leading Canadian radiologists who will attend are Dr. Bernard R. Mooney, radiologist at St. Joseph's Hospital, Victoria, and Dr. P. D. Proulx, of Vancouver. They will travel east together.

This will be the first international Congress of Radiology ever held in America, and will celebrate the forty-second year since Dr. William Conrad Roentgen discovered X-ray, and the thirty-ninth since the Curies' discovery of radium.

The vast progress in the development of the medical and other uses of these two forces in mankind will be portrayed during the congress by means of scientific papers and discussions and by graphic exhibits.

FIRST CONGRESS

The first international Congress of Radiology met in London in 1925, the second in Stockholm in 1928, the third in Paris in 1931 and the fourth in Zurich in 1934. It is expected that the fifth congress will be attended by at least 2,000 delegates and visitors from all parts of the United States and Canada and by more than 500 physicians and physicists from thirty nations of Europe, North and South America and Asia, with particularly large delegations expected from England, Germany, Italy and France.

These international congresses seek to maintain a continuity of programme over the years, and consequently each vital subject as diagnosis and treatment of cancer and many other diseases, and teaching and training in radiology will be on the agenda of this congress as they have at former meetings.

PICTURES AND EXHIBITS

Simultaneous projection of pictures and text in three languages will be an unusual feature of the meeting. Most of the European radiologists are at least bilingual, and many American and Canadian physicians will be glad of the French and German translations.

More than 12,000 square feet of scientific exhibits are being arranged, and about 20,000 square feet of technical exhibits of X-ray equipment.

FIND MISSING GIRL

NORTH VANCOUVER, Sept. 2. (G)—According to word received by police here, Thelma Walker, missing from her home since Monday, was located today at Campbell River, Vancouver Island. A radio message stated Miss Walker was all right and had been visiting a friend at Campbell River.

FALSE ALARM

"Is your husband at home, Mrs. Malone?"

"No, he is not. And in any case he did not steal the bicycle. It was Patrick Murphy's."

"And why did you not say that before? Mike! Ye can come down. It's only the chap from the sick club!"

Adjutant and Mrs. Charles Watt Address Gathering At Citadel

Adjutant and Mrs. Charles Watt, new commanding officers of the Salvation Army Citadel, who arrived here yesterday from New Westminster, where they have held similar posts for the past two years, were welcomed by all branches of the Victoria corps at a meeting in the Citadel last night. SAANICH BY-LAW IS BEING TESTED

Right to Collect Licence From Wood Company in Question In Court

The by-law of the municipality of Saanich, under which the Roger Wood Company was prosecuted for not paying the licence fee for its defective and may not cover the company from which collection was sought to be made. The case was adjourned yesterday in Saanich police court for final decision until next week in order to allow Harold Tait, prosecutor, the opportunity to meet the argument put forward by Richard C. Lowe, who appeared for the wood company.

Mr. Lowe took the position that the licence was collectable only when the company was carrying on business within the municipality. In this case, said was not the situation. The wood yards were in Victoria, and the wood was delivered to a Saanich patron on an order received from Saanich. This did not constitute a "transient trader" under the statute, he contended.

The magistrate declared the matter hinged on what was meant by "carrying on business," and allowed the decision to stand over to hear counsel on the other side.

In the case of the Empire Wood & Coal Company, which was also charged, the magistrate said the situation was different. The offender operated a wood yard in Saanich. He was liable for the licence and was accordingly fined $10, which would cover the $5 licence.

THE WAITER'S RETORT

The waiter in the restaurant of the small market town was having a trying time with the fastidious customer.

"Waiter," shouted the customer, "what's wrong with these eggs?"

"I don't know," retorted the waiter. "I only laid the table, ask the hen."

NOT COMMITTED SAYS MINISTER

Minister of Education Replies to Former Incumbent On Teachers' Bill

Point-blank denial that the Government stood committed to any form of teacher-autonomy legislation this fall was issued yesterday by Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, in reply to Canon Joshua Hinchliffe, who raised the issue.

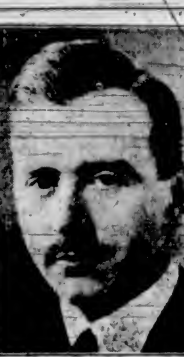

"As a matter of fact," said Dr. Weir, "the subject has not been seriously discussed. I am of the opinion myself that the teachers will not have any draft ready for the fall session."

"Apparently Mr. Hinchliffe has sources of information not available to me," he added. "I know, however, the subject has been under discussion for a number of years before the British Columbia Teachers' Federation. Presumably this 'private' printed bill has been circulating among the teachers to get their opinions and criticisms. This is a logical procedure to follow."

"Mr. Hinchliffe," he continued, "understands an undertaking has been given the teachers with regard to the bill. It would be interesting if he would disclose his source of information. Most assuredly I have given no undertaking and in so far as I am aware, no member of the government has done so."

"It can be assumed the teachers are drafting an act similar to that of the National Union of Teachers in Great Britain. The medical and legal professions have their acts and no doubt the teachers are thinking along similar lines. But they certainly have not approached this department with anything definite," Dr. Weir said.

"Making his own statement before the Victoria Conservative Association clear, Canon Hinchliffe said that the principles of the bill had been offered to him as proposed legislation while he was in office as Minister of Education, and that he had objected to these proposals. Since then he had seen and read a copy of a draft bill embodying the same proposals, Canon Hinchliffe stated.

SAYS ATTITUDE ANTI-JAPANESE

Rev. W. J. Sipprell Strongly Condemns Invasion of China by Japan

Strong condemnation of Japan's invasion of China was expressed yesterday by Rev. W. J. Sipprell in an address given to the Rotary Club in the Empress Hotel. He declared that although he had no personal admiration for the industrial progress of Japan in the last few decades, he was definitely "anti-Japanese" in so far as the present undeclared war was concerned.

Dr. Sipprell recently returned from conducting a party of tourists through the Orient.

"The idea of the Japanese that they are the 'blessed of heaven,' a people of divine origin and with a divine destiny as the rulers and protectors of the Asiatic peoples is at the root of the trouble," he said.

A MENTAL COMPLEX

"This has become a mental complex affecting the entire people since Japan defeated Russia in the Russo-Japanese War of 1904, and the feeling has been intensified by the emergence of Japan as a first rate trading and military nation," Dr. Sipprell pointed out.

"When we were in Kobe—the city was rampant with military agitation and preparation," he declared. "The present situation in the Orient is not something that has cropped up overnight, but it is rather the result of the clash of two fundamentally different kinds of temperament. Opposed to the inbred Japanese Japanese are the peaceful plodding Chinese, who, although stirred by a new national confidence since the days of Sun Yat Sen, are nevertheless, chiefly concerned with the ordinary business of earning their daily bread, and have no ambitions like the Japanese for a place in the sun," Dr. Sipprell asserted.

"In view of Japan's expansionist policy, I do not condemn in the least the activity of the Chinese Government in stirring up anti-Japanese feeling. But actually the Chinese are not opposed to Japanese or other foreigners living peacefully in their country," Dr. Sipprell said.

NOT ANTI-CHRISTIAN

Neither is the policy of the Chinese Government anti-Christian, he pointed out, and commented that General Chiang Kai-Shek was especially sympathetic to the missionary cause.

"The Japanese have been surprised by the resistance put up by the Chinese, and I do not think they will be able to carry on for long," he stated.

The speaker concluded by expressing his confidence that the 400,000,000 Chinese would never be dominated by Japan or any other invading nation.

Dr. Sipprell was introduced by James H. Boyd, T. Goodlake, president, was in the chair.

WELL AWAY

Prompted by the feeling that he was his duty the bishop remonstrated with one of his clerics for attending a local hunt.

"Well, my lord," replied the offender, "I really do not see any more harm in hunting than going to a ball."

"I presume," answered his lordship, "that you refer to having seen my name among those who attended Lady Somerville's ball? But I assure you I was never in the same room as the dancers."

"That, my lord, is exactly how I stand—I was never in the same field as the hounds."

PROGRAMME COMPLETED

High Schools to Commence New Courses After Complete Revision

The British Columbia Department of Education was equipped to make over British Columbia senior high schools yesterday, with 1,274 pages of revised programmes printed in six bulletins now issued from the King's Printer, upon the instruction of Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir. The complete series involving a curricula revision was the heaviest single task the King's Printer has tackled in recent years, and involved several months' work.

As now prepared, and to be instituted in part with the new school term next week, the complete revision for senior high-schools of the province is set out in the following works:

- "Programme of Studies for Senior High Schools," 521 pages.
- "Health and Physical Education for Senior High Schools," 173 pages.
- "Home Economics for Junior and Senior High Schools," 248 pages.
- "Technical Courses for Senior High Schools," 143 pages.
- "Commercial Studies for Senior High Schools," 163 pages.
- "Time-Table Construction in Senior High Schools," 26 pages.

GOING INTO USE

It is explained by the Department of Education that Grades 11 and 12 in senior high schools will continue for the present on their old courses; that Grade 10 will swing at once into the new programme this month, and that several subjects of Grade 9 not revised last year have now been varied and will be applied in the new form.

The object of the revision has already been explained by the minister. Revision was accomplished in elementary and junior high schools

Showing Films Of Australia In Vancouver

Dr. Randall-Colyer will leave by the afternoon boat today to be the guest for the week-end of Mrs. Hawkshaw, censor of films Vancouver. While there she will give a display of Australian movies, with industrial and educational films depicting the rural life and export trade of Australia and the British Empire.

Before leaving Australia for Canada as a delegate to the Women's Pan-Pacific Conference, Dr. Randall-Colyer was requested by Premier C. S. Stevens to lose no opportunity to bring about closer relationships in travel and trade and promote good-will between the sister dominions, and she has chosen pictures as the means of doing this.

I.O.D.E. Activities

Cowichan Chapter

Cowichan Chapter held its first meeting after the Summer recess on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the regent, Mrs. N. E. Sudaby, who presided. Mrs. A. J. McLean was welcomed as a new member. The educational secretary was authorized to renew subscriptions to The Canadian Geographic for the Duncan High and Lake Cowichan Superior Schools; the subscription to Pictorial Education for the Duncan Consolidated School, and all schools in the district will be given copies of the Coronation number of the I.O.D.E. publication "Echoes." The chapter's hospital convener reported that their room at the King's Daughters' Hospital had been completely renovated, a new steel bed-side table, curtains and vases having been purchased. Plans were made for holding a bazaar game for the funds on September 23. The semi-annual Provincial meeting will be held in Duncan on October 8 and plans were discussed for the entertainment, in conjunction with other local chapters, of delegates.

Chapter Resumes Usual Meetings

The Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., held its first meeting after the Summer recess yesterday at headquarters, the regent, Mrs. A. S. Christie, presiding.

Mrs. Christie expressed satisfaction at the success of Heather Day and spoke of the chapter's gratitude to Miss Terry for her courtesy in placing part of Terry's store at the chapter's disposal as headquarters. The regent also thanked Mrs. Bertha Parsons, convener, and all those who contributed to the day's success. The press and Mrs. R. B. McMicking, who greeted the first contingent men, were specially thanked; and Mrs. Fraser, of Ucluelet, who kindly provided the heater.

Mrs. Shaw, the treasurer, gave her report, and it was decided by the chapter to pay all outstanding bills, including the usual three months' rent and donations to Girl Guides, Seamen's Institute and the Red Cross. Mrs. R. P. Matheson presented the Girl Guides' report for the Summer season.

TELLS OF WORK

Mrs. F. F. Beckett, municipal educational secretary, gave an interesting talk on her work connected with the order. Eleven students were at present being assisted with their expenses for schooling in secondary education, and isolated schools, and she expressed the hope that primary chapters would take an interest in them and would correspond and send books as well as provide necessities such as clothes. On behalf of the chapter, the secretary thanked Mrs. Beckett for her address.

The next meeting of the chapter will be held on October 7, when a short meeting from 2:30 to 3 p.m. will be followed by an informal bridge party and tea at headquarters. Those wishing to reserve tables are asked to telephone Garden 7491.

Yesterday's meeting concluded with a social hour and tea.

DANCE TONIGHT

The Kinsmen Club will hold one of its largest dances of the season at the Brentwood Sports Hall, Brentwood Bay, this evening, according to the committee reporting on the sales of tickets. As the proceeds of the dance will go towards charitable purposes, the Kinsmen Club asks those of the surrounding districts to make a special effort to attend. The orchestra will play the latest dance music, and a special sit-down supper will be prepared, with fresh corn on the cob. Dr. Arthur Poyntz, Mr. Hugh Francis and Mr. Bob Rhinks are in charge. The hall will be decorated for the occasion.

Linen Suit Has Lace Blouse

Midsummer Ensemble of White Linen With Lace Blouse.

By LORRETT

WHITE is registering importantly in Paris as well as on this side of the water for these warm Summer days.

White was seen many times on the recent Grand Prix Day—a high spot in the Paris season. A great many well-dressed women were present who divided the spectator's attention with the horses who were picked to win.

Patou designed this tailored suit of white linen that is worn with a white lace blouse. The pattern of the lace is one of the many interesting lace designs that are to be seen this season, and is the main interest of the blouse, which otherwise is very simple, with long sleeves and turnover, pointed collar.

The jacket of the suit is also smartly tailored, and a Panama hat is worn with the costume.

Victoria Again: Leaves at Once

Attractive Irene Dunne again passed through Victoria yesterday afternoon, but few knew of her coming or her going. Accompanied by her husband, Dr. Francis D. Griffin, New York dental surgeon, the motion picture actress, who has been holidaying up-Island, stopped briefly outside the Empress Hotel in a car while Dr. Griffin caught a trolley.

The couple drove away almost immediately to catch the 5 o'clock boat for Seattle. Here last week seeking a spot where she would not be known, Miss Dunne was believed to have been planning a trip to Alaska. The couple enjoyed several days' fishing in the vicinity of Campbell River, however, and possibly may proceed north from Seattle to continue the "well-deserved rest" Miss Dunne has earned.

Evening Styles Luxurious

Gail Patrick Poses a Handsome Ermine Coat Over a Beige Chiffon Gown.

Long, raps and Capes Cover Gowns for Gala Occasions

EVENING fashions for Fall and Winter are luxurious. That has been said many times this season. And it remains true.

Typical of such luxury fashions is this costume worn by one of the most decorative of Hollywood stars, Gail Patrick. Over a beige chiffon gown which is simply but beautifully styled, she poses a handsome, regal evening coat of ermine—that fur of kings and queens.

This season, evening wraps are practically all long, and both slim capes and coats are favored. There are Madonna capes that slip over the head, there are coats with fur yokes, and wool is combined for evening with silver fox.

Long redingotes are shown by some designers, others prefer pencil-slim wraps, and then there are cape-coats and the dolman—always distinctive because of high style. Besides the fur yokes there are fur fronts, as done by Leung, and, of course, white fox collars, always stylish and flattering.

VELVET POPULAR

Velvet is strongly sponsored by the best dressmakers, and broadens its use to the luxury picture. Persian lamb, black caracul, Hudson seal and safari brown Alaska seal are favorites with those buying early. In the new chubby or chunky coat silhouette, which is emphasized as newest for the season, in the shorter coats, Australian possum, beaver, nutria, skunk and dyed fox are used.

In the new models of cloth, fur trimmed, natural colored cloth with brown fur trims are especially popular. And the tuxedo style of fur trimming seems to have a great following this season.

gers of the Chinese-Japanese war raging to the north. Among big ships snatched from their storm moorings and hurled around were the Japanese transport liner ASAMA MARU, 16,975 tons, and the Italian liner Conte Verde, 18,765 tons. It was believed both could be refloated.

The 4,552-ton Dutch passenger ship Van Heutz was a total loss. Two British ships, the Maungang and the Boon Court, and the Chinese Quilon were reported sunk. As was the Hunan, carrying 1,200 Chinese refugees from Shanghai. At least twenty ships are believed to have gone down.

WIDE DESTRUCTION

The wind carried destruction through wide areas of this British Crown Colony and filled its lower sections with deep water. Magao, a Portuguese colony sixty miles west of here, also suffered severely. Deaths were numerous among its colony of boat dwellers.

Observatory instruments ceased to function after registering a velocity of 125 miles an hour.

Downtown Hongkong was badly damaged, with scores of buildings unroofed, shops fronts blown in, streets littered with wrecked automobiles.

HEROIC RESCUES

British police and customs officers, forming lifelines along the waterfront, did heroic rescue work among crews of smaller ships, helpless or grounded, and saved hundreds of Chinese refugees.

The Van Heutz was ashore on Green Island, at the western entrance of Hongkong's harbor. Passengers were taken to safety by a tugboat and a launch.

Ship after ship was torn from its moorings in the crowded harbor and sent careening. The Chinese steamer An Lee, at the mercy of the wind, smashed against the British warships Suffolk, Duchess and Diamond tainside in an effort to block the road into the only province of the northern coast remaining in Government hands.

The blast was set off on a peak just within the Oviedo frontier in the Cuera range. It hurled a mass of debris into the path of the insurgents advancing on Port Llanas on the road to Gijon, the Government's last remaining Bay of Biscay port now that Bilbao and Santander have fallen.

Insurgent dispatches, however, said the road was only partially blocked and that the advance was not halted.

Reports reached the border that Asturian leaders were negotiating with General Franco for the surrender of Gijon, which would mean disappearance of the Government flag from the northern coastal region.

of the torpedo that sank the tanker resembled like a bombshell in Whitehall where the ministers had gathered to consider the attack the previous day on the destroyer Havock.

It was expected in naval circles that eight destroyers would be added to the eleven units now patrolling the Spanish basin of the Mediterranean. Four would be drafted from the Eastern Mediterranean fleet, it was believed, with the other four assigned from their present duties with the non-intervention naval patrol in service along Spanish coasts.

DEFINITE INSTRUCTIONS

The nineteen warships will be under instructions to "pursue, track and sink" any submarine guilty of aggression against British shipping, it was authoritatively stated.

Foreign Secretary Eden conveyed the decision in regard to the Mediterranean meeting to French Charge d'Affaires Roger Cambon immediately following a ministerial

FEARS FOR SHIP

VANCOUVER, Sept. 2.—Shipping circles here feared today that the Bonnington Court may have been one of many ships reported to have foundered in a typhoon that struck Hongkong yesterday.

Reports from Hongkong said a ship named Boon Court had sunk in Hongkong harbor when the typhoon struck. It was believed the ship was the Bonnington Court, under charter to the Canadian Transport Company of Vancouver.

The Bonnington Court left here several weeks ago with 5,500,000 feet of ties and had just reached Hongkong to discharge. Shipping authorities here believed the wooden ties would prevent the ship from drifting.

Arrangements have been made for a meeting of the Cabinet next week.

It was expected the Cabinet meeting would be held before Eden leaves to attend the Council and Assembly sessions of the League of Nations. France recommended Geneva as a meeting ground of the Mediterranean powers because their representatives would be there for the League proceedings.

PRESS INDIGNANT

The tone taken by tonight's newspapers reflected indignation of the public over the recurrence of "piracy" in the Mediterranean. The Star, a Liberal organ, noted:—

"To put down piracy in the Mediterranean now, no matter under what august patronage it operates, may be the means of saving many innocent lives."

Defending Italy, The Evening Standard branded certain newspapers as "war mongers" and asserted:—

"If Italy were to attack the British navy, she would do so with the full knowledge of its inevitable consequences. She would realize that Britain would exact swift and terrible revenge, and before making the attack she would concentrate her naval forces to meet a co-ordinated attack."

"But Italy has not concentrated her navy. Nor is there the slightest reason to suppose she has in her mind any course so reckless and futile as a Mediterranean war."

CABINET STATEMENT

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir John Simon, presided at today's ministerial conference. The First Lord of the Admiralty, Alfred Duff Cooper, Dominions Secretary Malcolm MacDonald and the Lord President of the Council, Viscount Halifax, also attended. The following official communiqué was issued after the session:—

"A meeting of ministers, over which the Chancellor of the Exchequer presided, was held at the Foreign Office today, when the current international situation in both the Far East and the Mediterranean was considered. In view of the recent attacks on British shipping, it was decided to reinforce the destroyer strength of the fleet in the west basin of the Mediterranean."

Jane Dixon Says:

A NINETEEN-YEAR-OLD GIRL'S BEST FRIEND TELLS HER SHE WOULD BE FOOLISH TO MARRY HER FIANCE UNLESS HE MAKES AS MUCH MONEY AS HER FATHER

Interfering friends (?) have stopped many a full-flowering romance before it reached the marriage altar, either destroying it completely or injuring it so that it died of its wounds. The cheapest thing those who insist upon injecting themselves into our lives—have to give us is advice. Generally, when it is given by interfering persons, advice is as worthless as it is cheap.

Be advised by your seniors whose words you respect. Turn a deaf ear to the volubility "fixer-uppers" who can tell others what to do with problems, but who very seldom do much except muddle their own lives.

Dear Jane Dixon: I am very much in love with a young man twenty-two. I am nineteen.

We have been going together for a year now, and plan on getting married this Fall, if things work out right for us. As soon as I met this boy I knew he was the right one for me. I fell from the beginning of our acquaintance that I could find lasting happiness with him. I am quite intuitive about lots of things, and intuition told me I was right about my love.

Do you think nineteen is too young to marry? My parents believe it is, and so do most of my friends. They say they wouldn't want to be tied down. I don't think a girl is tied down by marrying the man she loves, do you?

How much do you think is the least a young man should make in order to marry? I could help by working too, but this boy is old-fashioned enough to want to support his wife.

My best friend thinks that I would be foolish to marry a man who makes less per week than my father. Can you help me?

Comment: Nineteen is not too young to marry if you are convinced beyond doubt that you have found the one man above all others with whom you will find happiness in travelling life's journey.

The sum necessary to insure you some degree of comfort and freedom from financial worry depends upon your present standard of living. A three-room cottage might pall on a rich girl accustomed to looking upon luxuries as necessities. A three-room cottage to a poor girl from a hall bedroom might be a castle.

It would scarcely be fair to require a young man, starting his earning career, to provide a pay envelope equal to that of a mature man who has given years to reaching his present status. Your "best friend" is using the wrong measuring rod for your requirements. Why not do your own measuring? Make a budget—rent, provisions, household equipment, clothes. Allow a fair sum for sickness or other emergency and a limited sum for pleasure. The total will be the amount the young man should earn before you undertake marriage.

Those who contend that matrimony is bondage, either are pleasure-seekers or they have not yet met their true mate.

Life with the one we love does not tie us down. It lifts us up to go sailing on a ray cloud in a blue sky splashed with sunshine. Consider the counsel of your parents in the matter of marriage, when your "best friends" try to tell you what to do with your heart, change the subject.

Interrupted Romance

CHAPTER XXV

Standing at Jerry's back, Polly stared down at the empty stone floor where she had expected to see the body of Tony Marco. In anticipation of that unwholesome sight her nerves had tightened and she had been fully aware of the acceleration of her heart-beat as they descended the dark grey wall-in stairs. She had not wanted to return to this gruesome scene where a short time before soft but incredibly strong fingers had clawed at her throat. But she had known all along that Jerry planned to come back and that he would come alone, unless she insisted on coming with him.

Then Jerry was pulling the heavy rusty gate open and the flashlight illuminated the interior. Jerry looked at her "You're shaking," he said, "You passed up a good opportunity to lose your nerve, why do it now? There's nothing here to be afraid of; hasn't been since our first visit and won't be again."

She heard his words, but he was sitting on his heels examining the floor before they took on any meaning. "What do you mean?" She came back and—

He had found something in the thin layer of dust on the floor. He moved the light around in a circle slowly, held it off. Whatever it was, he saw it more clearly when the light was not directly over it. Then he rose and faced her.

"No one has been here since we were," he said, almost testily. "Whoever went out of here while we were laid out on the floor carried Marco's body along."

"Not then," she came back. "All right," he said. "If you want to think things out the hard way, that's your privilege." Now he played the light over the whole interior of the chamber, and though she had known all along they were there, Polly did not until this moment consciously consider the long, shallow boxes stacked up against the wall on her right.

She remembered when they first came to the closed gate Jerry's big flashlight had illuminated a sign over the doorway, "Explosives," and he had said, "Inconceivable! Hand grenades!" Now she saw the words stenciled on the boxes. The boxes were stacked neatly about three feet high near the doorway; but at the far end they had been pulled out and some twenty boxes had been piled up irregularly in front of the stack.

Jerry walked to the far end of the stack and leaned over it, to thrust his flashlight down behind the front row of boxes which had not been disturbed. After a moment Polly followed and looked down into an empty space about six feet long and two feet wide. Boxes lined the bottom and at one end the boxes were stained over an area of about the size and shape of a woman's fan.

"Marco's last resting place," Jerry said grimly, and moved down to the far end of the opening and pinched up something between two fingers. "Hold this light a minute, will you?" She took the light and he ground the palm of his right hand over the palm of his left. "Tiny grains of white sand fell into the open palm."

He brushed his hands, then took the light. "All right," he said. "Just one thing more and we'll go up for air—and the cops." He moved towards the door and Polly followed close at his heels. She said, "You're going to the police now, Jerry?"

He was about to answer that, but suddenly he shut his lips and stood there thinking. Then he said, "Maybe you're right. There's nothing here to show them. Nothing convincing, I mean. Marco's body is missing. Bloodstains and dry sand from a rubber heel don't prove murder, and the police have enough on their hands without investigating the murder of a man they aren't even sure is dead." He looked down at her, said, "You're beginning to use your head at last," and walked out into the narrow corridor and began a minute examination of the stone floor. To the right, as Polly stood in the doorway, were the steps leading up to the entrance to the fort—to the left was the long tunnel through which they had come from the cell once occupied by the Semipole Chief Ocelia. Jerry moved along slowly with the light spread on the floor until he came to the mouth of the tunnel. Then he straightened up and came back to her and fingered the brass lock hanging in the metal arm fastened to the right of the door. "All done," he said at last and led the way up the steps.

They were riding back to the Fordell house when Polly said, "All right, Sherlock, let's hear the worst. You didn't do all that poking around just to impress me, did you?" He turned his head for a moment and looked away again without speaking. Polly put her arm through his and laughed softly. "Oh, Jerry, you're such a pouty. You're still angry because I screamed, aren't you?"

"I'm not angry," he said. "I'm disappointed. Until then you gave every evidence of having some intelligence."

"But I couldn't let you go down there alone, and I was afraid to go back—then. Don't be like that, darling."

Abruptly he jerked the roadster to the curb and kicked the brake pedal. The car came to a stop with a prolonged screech. He twisted around and looked down at her, frowning.

"What did you say?"

"You heard me, mister," Polly grinned, feeling inexpressibly brazen for having said it.

"Say it again."

"No—." She leaned away from him. "Not until you tell me what all that prowling around in the old fort meant—if anything. Did you know what you were doing, or were you just satisfying the boy detective's idea of a thorough examination at the scene of the crime?" He looked at her watch. He leaned over and dimmed his headlights. "All right, I'll tell you. You are free to accept all of it, a part of it, or none of it," he said. "A task is that you quit calling me the 'boy detective' and give me the notion that you can trail around protecting me from euthroa."

Laughter rose in Polly's throat, but she choked it down. It struck her as extremely funny that he didn't like to be called the "boy detective." But when she could control her voice, she said, "All conditions accepted."

He caught the hint of laughter in her voice, however, and suddenly grinned. "You win," he said. "I can't tell you how much better it would make me feel if I could give you one good spanking, Polly." He dug out his pipe, filled it and put it in his mouth. Then he took the stem from between his teeth, and it was twenty minutes before he thought of it again.

"As Garbriek would say—this is pure theory. I've added things and found a total. Some of it I should prove in court to the satisfaction of the dumbest of juries; some of it I couldn't prove—not yet."

means that it will cause symptoms? It is known, of course, that when we take a food, even before we eat it, the digestive fluids in our mouth, stomach and small intestine begin to flow freely, and when we don't like a food these digestive juices do not flow readily.

However, it would appear from experiments carried out by Drs. Warren T. Vaughan—Richmond, Pa., and recorded in The Journal of Allergy, Chicago, that even if we like a food it will not prevent symptoms if we happen to be sensitive or allergic to that food. Eggs are liked by most individuals, yet eggs are the commonest cause of allergic symptoms. Also foods we dislike in the majority of cases are not the foods that cause symptoms.

In an experiment with 100 patients the seven foods most frequently disliked were, in order: Spinach, turnips, cabbage, carrots, okra, lamb and squash, yet the foods most frequently found to be responsible for allergic symptoms—swelling of lips and throat, rhinorrhea, vomiting, stomach distress—were, in order: cucumber, watermelon, raspberries, strawberries, tomatoes, onions, cabbage and cantaloupe.

Chatterer Screws Up His Courage
—By THORNTON W. BURGESS—

Ever since Sammy Jay had dropped a hint about the plentiful supply of corn over at Farmer Brown's, and how easy it was to get all that one wanted, Chatterer had been trying to screw up his courage to go see for himself if Sammy had told the truth. Chatterer had spent most of his life in or close to the Green Forest. He had a very wholesome fear of Farmer Brown's boy, and he always had been content to keep away from Farmer Brown's dooryard. The truth is he was afraid to go up there. You see, there were Black Pussy the Cat and Bowser the Hound and Farmer Brown's boy; why it was a terribly dangerous place.

And yet Sammy Jay went up there every day and didn't seem to be in the least afraid. He even scolded and said impudent things to Farmer Brown's boy. If Sammy dared go up there, why shouldn't he? He certainly was as brave as Sammy Jay. Right down in his heart Chatterer had always thought Sammy Jay very much of a coward. Yet there was Sammy Jay going up there and helping himself to corn just as if it belonged to him. Chatterer thought of how hard he worked every day to fill that storehouse with the hollow fence rail, and how every minute of the time he had to watch for Redtail the Hawk and Reddy Fox. It seemed as if he never could get enough corn to keep him all winter. And then it was a long way to go every day, away from the Old Orchard down to the cornfield. Chatterer sighed at the thought.

"If Sammy Jay told me the truth and it is so easy to get all the corn one wants, over there at Farmer Brown's it will be ever so much easier in bad weather than going way down to my storehouse," thought Chatterer. "Anyway, it won't do any harm to have a look and see for myself how things are."

So Chatterer started running briskly along the old stone wall which led right up to Farmer Brown's yard. As he drew near he would stop every few steps to make sure that the way was clear. At last he reached the very end of the wall, and hiding between two stones he peeked out. Right across a wide road was Farmer Brown's house, and in the sun on the back doorstep sat Black Pussy dozing. Chatterer had hard work to hold his tongue. The very sight of her made him so angry that he almost forgot that he didn't want to be seen. He just longed to tell her what he thought of her. But he kept still and set his sharp little eyes to discover where Farmer Brown kept his corn. He could see

FISHING GOOD NEAR OAK BAY

Portland Resident and Wife Obtain Fine Catch in Two Hours

When Willard R. Lewis and his equally skillful wife caught enough salmon off Oak Bay to feed eighty persons, broiled salmon a la Lewis was the main dish on the closing luncheon menu of the Oregon Mutual Life Convention, held recently at the Empress Hotel.

Using a plug, seven-ounce rod and a ten-pound test line, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis said it took them less than a couple of hours to play and land fish weighing fourteen pounds, twelve pounds, eleven pounds, two of eight and one of eight and a half pounds, and they never had so much fishing fun in their lives. Mr. Lewis, who lives in Portland, is a former president of the Multnomah Anglers and Hunters' Club, and special representative and leading agent for the Oregon Mutual Life. Now the convention is over he is holidaying in Island for ten days or two weeks longer with Mrs. Lewis.

Both of them intend to try their luck at the famous giant salmon of Campbell River and Comox Bay. Report says these fish are running as high as one hundred pounds and occasionally over.

Giants Widen Lead Over Cubs in Race For League Honors

Nosed Out Cardinals, 5-4, and Move Full Game In Front of Chicago—Brooklyn Dodgers Defeat Cubs, 4-3, in Eleven-Inning Struggle—Cleveland Beats Yankees

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP).—The gallant Giants pulled a full game in front of the National League pack today by outlasting the St. Louis Cardinals for a 5-4 ten-inning victory.

The victory, seventh in their last eight games, boosted their pace-setting lead since the Cubs dropped their start in Brooklyn.

The Cards took a one-run lead in the first half of the tenth and appeared to have the game sewed up, but Mel Ott tied it up with his thirtieth homer, and then Hank Leiber, Harry Danning and Burgess Whitehead singled the winning run across.

The Cards not only lost the game, but their first baseman as well. One of Harry Gumbert's slants felled Johnny Mize in the sixth and he was carried off the field on a stretcher. Although he was not believed seriously hurt, he was taken to a hospital for an X-ray examination.

Johnny McCarthy's bat struck the balance that saved the Giants from throwing the game away, through their four errors. After the Cards took the lead with a run in the second on one hit and two errors, McCarthy got them back in the ball game with his homer with a mate on base in the sixth. A passed ball, a hit and two walks gave the Cards two in the eighth, but McCarthy promptly tied it up again with his second homer.

Cubs Lose Again

BROOKLYN, Sept. 2 (AP).—The Dodgers kept the Chicago Cubs in second place in the National League pennant sweepstakes again today by outlasting their rivals for a 4-3 decision in eleven innings.

The defeat, coming while the league-leading Giants were defeating the St. Louis Cardinals, dropped the Cubs a full game back in the runner-up slot.

The victory was the Dodgers' second straight over the Cubs and gave them their third straight series.

They had to come from behind, a 3-1 advantage to do it, but they accomplished it with a two-run score tying spurge in the eighth, during which the collapsible Cub infield committed a costly error, and then won out in the second extra frame.

Max Butcher, big Dodger pitcher who took over the mound assignment in the tenth after Luke Hamlin and Jim Lindsey had given up, won his own game with a single that sent the winning run across the plate.

EXPLANATION FOR TUESDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

The Big Wind Well—Early in February, 1937, while drilling for oil at Great West No. 1 near the Coedon Refinery, in Big Spring, Texas, an "airwell" was brought in with such terrific force that the derrick was blown to pieces, huge steel beams and braces over the casing were torn apart, and machinery scattered in every direction. The noise accompanying the escape of so much air under high pressure—estimated at 285,000 cubic feet every 24 hours—was deafening, and could be heard for miles, a constant roaring reminder of how much greater and more powerful Nature can be than man. After six months of constant effort, workers were able to drown the well out with water—but not until about fifty billion cubic feet of dangerous nitrogen had escaped.

English Driver Sets Up Another New Speed Mark

LOCARNO, Switzerland, Sept. 2 (AP).—Sir Malcolm Campbell, the British speed star of land and water, was clocked officially today at a speed of 129.50 miles an hour in a test of his motorboat Bluebird on Lake Maggiore—a new world record. His mechanics, who started packing the high-powered boat for a homeward trip tomorrow, said the Bluebird was capable of even greater speed. Today's trial smashed the mark Sir Malcolm set yesterday when the Bluebird flashed over the nautical mile at nearly 128 miles an hour. Itself a record speed until today, Campbell was timed today by officials who said the new mark would be presented to the International Motor Yachting Union for ratification.

L. CONACHER QUITS SPORT FOR POLITICS

Canada's Leading Athlete to Be Liberal Candidate in Ontario Election

TORONTO, Sept. 2 (AP).—Lionel Conacher, recognized as Canada's greatest all-round athlete, will be the Liberal candidate for Toronto—Brantford riding in the October 6 Ontario election.

A convention last night gave him a unanimous vote. No other name was brought before the meeting.

Conacher, once a University of Pittsburgh football star, but more noted for his hockey activities, enjoyed one of the best seasons of his long career with Montreal Maroons, of the National League, last winter.

Conacher, of Toronto Maple Leafs, has also been outstanding at baseball, lacrosse and wrestling, and once boxed Jack Dempsey in an exhibition.

Born in Toronto thirty-six years ago, Conacher entered sports as a sandlot football player and when he reached the peak of his game in the early 1920's, he was recognized as the greatest country ever produced. In later years his gridiron career has been shadowed by the background of a brilliant succession of seasons in professional hockey.

Defeat of Sunderland, winner of the cup last season, by Leicester City during the week was due to a defensive lapse of which Derby's virile forwards will take full toll if it is not mended by Saturday. The cupholders have to go to Derby.

Stockport County and Chesterfield, leading the Second Division, both have tough assignments. Stockport travels to Barnsley and Chesterfield to Fulham.

Notts County, Watford and Queens Park Rangers, only "hundred-per-centers" left in the southern section of the Third Division, all play away from home Saturday. Rotherham United, leading the northern section, with two straight wins travels to York City, which has won one and drawn one.

SCOTTISH LEAGUE

GLASGOW, Sept. 2 (AP).—Given advantage of a home game this Saturday, Dundee, on top of the Scottish Football League standing with four consecutive wins, has a good chance to retain the number-one spot as the campaign starts its fourth week.

The Dens Park entry has impressed with its powerful offensive. Although they have yet to meet really strong opposition, the club has won all its games, scoring a total of ten goals against one. Queen's Park, yet to enter a maximum-point contest, provides the opposition at the week-end and indications point to another loss.

Feature match is billed for Motherwell, where the colorful Rangers, last year's champions, are scheduled to play. Both teams are bracketed in the runner-up position with Hearts. The Edinburgh club travels to Falkirk—top dog in two of its four matches to date.

Celtic entertains Hamilton Academicals, while Aberdeen goes to its bad-luck grounds, Cathkin Park home of Third Lanark. The Celts are given the nod, but Aberdeen will have to hustle to take all points.

Still without a victory, Clyde goes to Ayr, promoted this Spring, while Morton, lower in all stands and in last position, has a tough assignment at St. Johnstone.

Odds favor Patrick Thistle over Arbroath and Kinross, over Hibernians in other matches, while it's a toss-up between St. Mirren and Queens Park, battling on the former's grounds.

Albion Rovers, tied with Airdrieonians and Raith Rovers for leadership of the Second Division, have a good chance to break the deadlock.

Champion and Runner-Up in U.S. Golf

"I've waited a long time for this," said Johnny Goodman, Omaha's new National Amateur golf champion (left), as he took the $25,000 gold Havemeyer Trophy from Ray Billows, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., runner-up, at the end of their thirty-six-hole title match at Alderwood Country Club, Portland. Goodman won the match, two up.

Conacher told last night's convention he was interested in youth and had received assurance from Premier Mitchell Hepburn a programme for youth in the province would receive serious consideration if he were elected. He pledged confidence in Mr. Hepburn.

GREEN IN POLITICS

"I like Mr. Hepburn because he is a fighter," declared Conacher. "While I am green in politics, I hope to know more about it by the time October 6 arrives."

Today Lionel Conacher said he had given up sports for politics.

The "Big Train," a football and hockey immortal, once the most-feared football halfback in the country, said he would take part in no more sports as a competitor, but was "willing to lend a hand in some ways if called on."

He has been successful in business enterprises outside professional sports.

Undeclared Elevens to Clash in Feature Game

Wolverhampton and Arsenal Match Highlight of Tomorrow's Fixtures in English League—Dundee, Scottish Leaders, Play Queen of South

LONDON, Sept. 2 (AP).—Though the new soccer season is less than a week old, many midweek games have been played and only two teams, Arsenal and Wolverhampton, have 100 per cent records, each winning two straight. These teams meet at the Gunners' grounds in the feature match Saturday.

Saturday's tussle between the leaders at Highbury should provide a stern battle, but the Gunners, with Hulme back to winning form, should survive.

Another feature match brings together the league champions, Manchester City, and Leicester City. Second Division champions of last season, the senior champions, on their own grounds, have the edge.

Chelsea, after a totally unexpected scoring spurge a week ago when they overwhelmed Liverpool, 6-1, played pretty football and did not attempt a scoring burst against Leeds United, who beat them 2-0 in midweek. These tactics against West Bromwich Albion Saturday would be suicidal.

TWO CENTURIES ARE SCORED AS TOURING SIDE WINS FIXTURE

Old Country Players Knock Up 255 for Seven Wickets—Montreal Replies With 214—Mel Davies, of Canadian Side, and C. L. Taylor, M.C.C., Each Score 118 Runs

By H. H. GORDON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL, Sept. 2. — Despite a thrilling tenth wicket stand in which tiny Mel Davies hit the only century recorded against the Marylebone Cricket Club team on its Canadian visit, the Englishmen defeated a representative Montreal eleven in their last match of their tour today by 41 runs. The M.C.C. declared with 255 runs for seven wickets, Montreal replying with 214.

It was an exciting ending to a successful tour in which the M.C.C. played nineteen matches in six provinces, winning twelve and losing only one. The remaining games were drawn. The visitors played their opening match in Toronto August 2.

Davies, in completing—118 runs, shared honors with C. L. Taylor, M.C.C.'s opening batsman, who scored a similar number in faultless style earlier in the day. While Davies subjected the visiting bowlers to severe punishment, Taylor was more restrained, making his runs by clever strokes all round the wicket. The Montrealer included a six and seventeen fours in his century. Taylor also smashed the ball out of the ground on one occasion and his score included fourteen fours. J. F. Mendi helped boost the English team's total with a slashing 44.

MANY RUNS SHORT

When Harry Mitchell, veteran Montreal bowler, went in at the fall of the ninth wicket, Davies was many runs short of the hundred mark. The crowd expected the match would end in quick time as Mitchell earned his place on the team for his bowling ability. But he defended so well that the score was carried from 152 to 214 before Davies called for an impossible run and Mitchell was thrown out at the wicket.

As he approached three figures Davies did not hesitate. At the close the visiting players joined with the crowd in applauding his feat.

Tomorrow several of the English cricketers return to England aboard the liner Duchess of York, a number will leave for New York before sailing for home and others are remaining in Canada for short holidays.

Medalist in Women's Canadian Golf Loses In Extra-Hole Match

Beatrice Barrett, Minneapolis Shotmaker, Drops Tough Battle to Rita Shuttleworth, Hamilton—Lillian Boyd, Vancouver, Also Beaten

ST. CHARLES COUNTRY CLUB, Sept. 2.—Rita Shuttleworth, of Hamilton, Ontario, set a winning precedent for outsiders in the Canadian women's open golf race today with a stunning extra-hole conquest of the Minneapolis favorite, Beatrice Barrett.

Her sensational quarter-final victory, achieved through a birdie three on the 33rd hole, was the greatest of three major upsets. Mrs. H. W. Soper surprised with a 3 and 2 triumph in an all-Montreal match with Nora Hankin, and long-hitting Evelyn Mills, Ottawa, was ousted, 4 and 2, by Winnipeg's Mrs. John Rogers.

Lillian Boyd, Vancouver, could not maintain the pace she set in beating the highly-ranked Mrs. J. D. Pearce, of Montreal, and Kay Farrell, Vancouver, and bowed to the staid golfer of Mrs. Eric Phillips, Toronto, 2 and 1.

In eighteen-hole semi-finals tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. Shuttleworth meets Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Rogers plays Mrs. Soper. The final Saturday will be over thirty-six holes.

Mrs. Shuttleworth's win ensured the championship would remain in Canada for the sixth consecutive year. Last United States winner was Maureen Orcutt, of Englewood, N.J., at Toronto, in 1931. The 1936 champion, Mrs. A. B. Darling, of Montreal, did not defend.

GAINED EARLY ADVANTAGE—Mrs. Shuttleworth gained an early advantage when Miss Barrett's putting went to pieces in the early holes. She could not match the Minnesotan's powerful woods on the long holes but her short approaches and putts were almost uncanny. She was two up at the turn.

A thirty-foot putt on the 33rd hole put the Ontario champion three up. The thirteenth was halved, then Miss Barrett fired two birds and a par four to square the match. —Helen Germaine, of New York, recent winner of Hearst Tennis Tourney, Los Angeles, stretches wide to return one over net.

Both spanked long irons to the nineteenth green, each about nine feet from the cup in two. Be's putt hit the back of the cup and bounced out, while Mrs. Shuttleworth's dropped for a birdie and the match.

Nora Hankin, whose 82 in the qualifying test was second to Miss Barrett, played below form, but was one up on Mrs. Soper at the turn.

They were all square at the fourteenth tee, but Mrs. Soper won the next two holes in par and ended the match with a birdie three on the 33rd hole.

Mrs. Rogers, former Manitoba champion, shooting some of the best golf of her career in this tournament, fired an outgoing 42 to be three up on Evelyn Mills. With Mrs. Rogers' dormie five, Evelyn shot a par five on the long fourteenth and kept the match alive on the 17th yard fifteen after Mrs. Rogers laid her a dead style on the green.

Miss Mills used a number seven iron to chip into the cup from thirty inches and win with a three. The Winnipeg woman ended the match on the next green with a par four.

Mrs. Phillips and Miss Boyd shot erratic golf and were all square at the turn. Mrs. Phillips fired pars to win the tenth and eleventh, lost the thirteenth, won the fourteenth when Lillian took a two-over-par seven, and saw her lead whittled to one hole by Miss Boyd's par three on the fifteenth. They halved the 33rd hole and the match with the Toronto woman won the match with a four on the 35th yard seventeenth.

CANADIAN IN FINE WIN AT FOREST HILLS

Laird Watt, Montreal, Advances in Tennis Meet Jean Milne Beaten

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Sept. 2 (AP).—The tennis greats and near-greats indulged in a lot of firing on the courts of the West Side Tennis Club as the men's and women's United States singles championships got under their cumbersome way. But little of it was more than target practice.

Twenty of the forty-eight seeded players in both divisions saw action, but when play ended only one, Ross Wilson, of Toronto, seeded last among foreign entries, was eliminated.

Laird Watt, of Montreal, scored the lone Canadian victory in the first round, defeating W. H. Earle, of England, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3, 6-1.

Moving to the sidelines with Wilson went the only two Canadian women who played today: Mrs. Milne of Ottawa, and Jean Milne, of Vancouver.

Watt was not extended in his match with Earle, pegging away at a weak forehead, he kept the game at a pace that was too much for the Englishman. Tomorrow's Montrealer meets Jiro Yamaguchi, Japanese ace, in the second round. Wilson was defeated 4-6, 6-3, 6-4.

AUTO RACES TO BE HELD ON SATURDAY

Speed Demons Will Once More Vie for Honors at Langford Oval

With the fast Langford speedway as their proving ground, Victoria's dirt track experts will once more test their metal against the more experienced drivers from across the line, during another international auto race meet Saturday evening. The time trials this week will commence at 7:30 o'clock, an hour earlier than the previous starting time.

In addition to the regular speed demons, the tiny one and one-half litre stock cars will once again be given the opportunity to thrill the auto racing fans. Bill Aymer, the winner of the Plimley Cup, will be behind the wheel of his midge speedster and will be given plenty of competition by Bruce Low, Lieut. Woolsey and Mat McMurry.

Elmer Setteman, who did not show in the races last Saturday, has signified his intention of competing this week. He will be out to beat the existing track record of 203.5 seconds now held by Jimmy Symes.

PLENTY OF SPEED

Symes showed plenty of speed in setting the record and capturing the twenty-lap main event on last week's card, but will have to bear down a good deal more to keep out in front of Setteman and Jack Mahoney, another American pilot.

Bert Sutton hung up the fast time of 212.5 seconds in a trial run Wednesday evening, and has his car fitted with special large rear tires that enable him to skid the turns at terrific speed. Bill Pearson, Buddy Green and the rest of the local contingent will be at the throes of their respective speed wagons, seeking a share in the prize money.

In addition to the time trials there will be a helmet dash for the three fastest cars, to be followed by three heat dashes of seven laps apiece. Then the fastest American and Canadian drivers will flash around the oval in a duel for international honors. After the stock cars have had their innings the main attraction of twenty laps will throw the whole field into a hodge-podge of speed and thrills.

LEADING HITTERS AT A STANDSTILL

Joe Medwick, Paul Waner, Charlie Gehringer and Lou Gehrig Do Little Clouting

The batting races in both big leagues virtually stood still yesterday, with only the third-place holders gaining an advantage through the batting doldrums of the pacesetters. Ducky Medwick, of the Cardinals, and Paul Waner, of the Pirates, one-two in the National League, each hit one-for-four and even dropped one point, to 392 and 373, respectively.

Charlie Gehringer, of the Tigers, leading the American League, hit one-for-five and Lou Gehrig, his nearest rival, went hitless in three chances. Each dropped two points.

The leaders' first three in each league follow:

BRUINS REACH TROPHY FINAL

Defeat Victoria Longshoremen in Semi-Final of Poodle Dog Cafe Cup

Painter's Bruins, Vancouver Island senior "A" softball champions, advanced to the final round of the Poodle Dog Cafe Cup knockout series yesterday evening, when they defeated the Victoria Longshoremen, 7-3, at the Royal Athletic Park.

With the score standing at 3-3 going into the first half of the fifth frame Bruins, aided by a circuit, drove across four runs.

Glendenning and Bonner, rival hurlers, engaged in a real twirling battle, and allowed seven hits apiece. Bonner breezed five and Glendenning three.

Manager Bert Simpson and his Bruins leave tonight for Vancouver where, tomorrow, they will battle Watkins-Winram, Mainland champions, in the British Columbia play-offs.

What Today Means

"VIRGO"
If September 3 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:45 to 11:45 a.m., from 3:45 to 5:45 p.m., and from 8:45 to 10:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:45 to 9:45 a.m., from 5:45 to 7:45 p.m., and from 10:45 p.m. until midnight.

Be careful how far you permit your personal likes and dislikes to influence your actions today. Valuable time will be frittered away unless your day's activities are planned systematically. Stubborn, headstrong and ungovernable temper will precipitate most of the domestic disturbances today, so be sure to keep yours under complete control. Conditions may be conducive to make the average person extremely temperamental, so be very tactful in your comments and actions at home, with those you meet socially or in business. Business ventures started today are likely to succeed. Your power to make your brain function any desired line of thought is apt to be unlimited, so your creative, as well as narrative, potentialities are immeasurably great. Married and engaged couples, as well as those passing through the courtship period of love, must be careful that a feeling of skepticism is not responsible for their acting unfairly in matters involving excuses. If a woman and September 3 is your birthday, your greatest happiness will probably come from your harmonious thinking rather than from physical activities. You have possibly an ambition to travel and to enjoy cultural advantages. With you money may mean power, and the indications are you will have an abundance of both. An enterprising spirit will enable you to successfully accomplish some lofty aspiration, possibly relating to an artistic, literary, or educational standard you have set for yourself. Your taste may be simple but decidedly discriminating. You do things usually with what might be termed elegant simplicity and without ostentation. Sculpturing, painting, writing, teaching, designing, interior decorating, acting, or singing are among the media through which you might successfully woo fame. Through wit and luck should come your greatest joys and blessings.

The child born on September 3 will in its early period of adolescence possibly display a strong feeling of resentment if attempts are made to force it to do things. Reasoning can accomplish far more than drastic demands or severe discipline. Tactfully handled, this youngster may be moulded into a very fine character. If a man and September 3 is your natal day, if you let courage and faith sustain you, you will have no trouble solving your problems. As an astronomer, educator, lawyer, naturalist, engineer, artist, author, salesman, or theologian, you may distinguish yourself.
